FOUND.—A clasp door key, with a small wrench attached, which the owner can have by paying for this notice.

Wednesday being the 27th, St. John's Day, the Masonic Lodges of the city will hold their regular annual elections.

Invitations to the hop to be given on the 28th, in honor of Miss Nettie McDowell, were sent out Wednesday evening.

Dr. J. C. Bush, the Main street Dentist, will be out of the city for a week or ten days from this date visiting his parents in Hawesville.

At last accounts Mrs. Harriett Leonard was lying at the point of death at the residence of her son, Rev. Jos. Leonard, in Mt. Sterling.

The steamer City of Frankfort came up Tuesday afternoon and laid up at this place, on account of the ice in the Ohio river, until Thursday.

Mr. Ed. Marshall and Miss Laura Morris were married at the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, Wednesday morning, by Elder George Darsie.

Mr. Robert Stephens, of this city, and Miss Nina Bright, of Shelby county, were married at Hardinsville Thursday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis officiating.

Mrs. Mariam Smith, an old resident of this city, died at the residence of Dr. A. W. Vallandigham, on Lewis street, Monday night. She was a daughter of the late Larkin Samuel, of South Frankfort.

One of the largest hogs ever slaughtered in this section was on exhibition at the meat store of Mr. Z. T. Collins, South Side, Tuesday. It was of the Chester breed, weighed 630 pounds net, and cost Mr. Collins $50.40. It was raised by Mr. Polk Moore, in the Benson neighborhood.

Mr. Mack Salyers, while engaged in cutting feed for the cows of the Blue Grass Dairy, at the farm of Mr. A. G. Jeffers, two miles from the city, Monday afternoon, got the thumb of his right hand caught in a forty-knife cutting box and had it so badly lacerated that he will probably lose the use of it.

Saturday morning the wooden bridge was on fire again, but was discovered in time by Mr. Robinson, the keeper, to prevent much damage. Some one dropped a match or cigar on the sidewalk on the east side, and the trash that had collected in the box in which the water pipe runs ignited from it and set fire to the floor. A few buckets of water put it out.

Don't forget that Philip Selbert, the Popular Jeweler, gives to his patrons three grand prizes.

An Enterprising Newspaper.

The Louisville Weekly Commercial announces that hereafter its yearly subscription price will be only One Dollar. This reduction will make the Commercial the cheapest and best general newspaper in the State. It will also be greatly improved. On January 1st it will appear in an entire new and handsome dress and will contain, among other valuable features, Whyte-Melville's celebrated novel "KATERFELTO." The adventures of the hero and his thorough-bred race mare, Katerfelto, with the charming and yet thrilling love story of Walf and John Garnet, make the tale one of profound interest throughout. There is not a dull chapter in the entire novel. In order to obtain the first chapters of this tale of unparalleled popularity, subscriptions should be sent to the Commercial at once. By special arrangements we are able to offer the Roundabout and the Weekly Commercial at the astounding price of only $1.80 per year, giving our citizens their home paper and the best family newspaper in the State, for little more than the price of one. Send your subscriptions at once.
